

Custom Milling of Paddy

FAQ

Q:- How to get paddy for Custom Milling from Food and Supplies Department, Haryana.

Ans:- A miller become eligible for custom milling of department's paddy by formally registering himself with the Department.

Q:- What is the amount of security and advance cheques required to be given against paddy.

Ans:- (a) Rs. 2,00,000 for one MT Capacity and Rs. 1,00,000 for additional one tonne Capacity is to be deposited in the shape of FDR with concerned DFSC.

(b) Guarantee is taken in the shape of signed cheque/cheques drawn in favour of the DFSC@ Rs. 25 Lakh for each tonne milling capacity from the miller. Besides, the miller also provides two "third party" sureties of Arthias of the same mandi/purchase centre having reliability and good reputation from where the paddy is to be provided to the miller.

Q:- How much paddy can be allotted to a mill.

Ans:- Paddy is allotted to a mill as per its milling capacity.

Mills having capacity upto 1MT/hour =2000MT

Mills having capacity upto 2MT/hour =3000MT

Mills having capacity upto 3MT/hour =4000MT

Mills having capacity upto 4MT/hour =5000MT

Q:- What is the time period for milling of paddy/delivery schedule of CMR.

Ans:- It is as under:-

October & Nov	=	20%	of the allotted paddy
December, 2008	=	25%	-do-
January, 2009	=	25%	-do-
February, 2009	=	15%	-do-
March,2009	=	15%	-do-